

GOLDEN-HAIRED, BLUE-EYED, MODEST LASS OF 17 NOW "MISS WASHINGTON"

MISS MARGARET
GORMAN CHOSEN
IN BIG CONTESTForty-one Beauties Appear Before Judges In Finals.CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.
an announcement would be made Monday morning, and excused.The judges balloted secretly and without any preliminary discussion.
Miss Gorman got most of the votes on the first ballot, and on the second ballot was selected.Her nearest competitors were Miss Elizabeth Roach, Miss Lulu Mc-Grath and Miss Alice Touart. The question of residence in Washington mitigated somewhat against these young women. Miss Touart and Miss Roach have made their home here only within recent years, and Miss McGrath, an exceptionally beautiful and talented young woman, is now starring in the movies.Despite these considerations, however, Miss Gorman was considered the best qualified, and in making the announcement the judges paid her this unique compliment:"Although she is extremely young —she is not quite 17—we found her to possess to the highest degree those qualifications which are required for the representative of Washington. She possesses remarkable physical beauty. Her features are practically perfect, her hair and complexion are natural and of rare color. In addition to this she possesses a sweet, pleasing manner and intellect that would do credit to one of more mature years."

Modest and Unassuming.

Unfortunately photographs seem inadequate to convey a fair impression of Miss Gorman, who for the second time within a few months, has been adjudged the most beautiful young woman in the city, and each time by entirely different judges. Exquisitely cut features and a finely shaped head are crowned with a wealth of natural golden hair. Her eyes are of a rare, deep blue and her skin clear and healthy and of a fine texture. Above all she is modest and unassuming, is extremely popular with her friends and is looking forward to the opening of school, so that she may resume her studies, with a great deal of enthusiasm. She plays tennis daily and is quite expert.Miss Gorman was born in Washington, in the same house the family now occupies. Her father, M. J.
Gorman, is an executive at the Department of Agriculture, where he has served under four administrations.

Atlantic City Makes Ready.

A hundred million dollars worth of the greatest resort hotels in the world have been placed at the service of "Miss Washington" and the other civic beauties, who are to come to Atlantic City as guests of the resort during the fall pageant to be held on September 7 and 8.At a meeting of the millionaires hotel men of Atlantic City the entire list of great hostilities which stretch along the beach and add to Atlantic City's world-wide fame were placed at disposal of the civic beauties, who are to be assigned to ocean front suites during their visit from Tuesday, September 6 to Friday, September 9.No limit was placed on the class of accommodations to be tendered to the visiting young women and their chaperones during the visit to the pageant. Suites which include reception rooms for the greeting of friends of the young women will be tendered to them on arrival, and for the time of their visits they will be the honor guests of the big houses, feted and dined on every possible occasion.Other selections are being completed and within a few days the most beautiful young women of many American cities will be listed, photographed and enrolled in the pageant, which is to be the really big feature of the coming pageant.WOULD MAKE ERIN ARMS PARLEY TESTA plea that Ireland be made the test of disarmament is asked in a petition, to go before President Harding, Congressmen and diplomats, which was passed unanimously by the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, meeting last night in Congress Hall. The petition will be presented by every council of the association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic which has some almost 1,000,000 people in the United States.
The petition further protests any disarmament agreement between the United States and until World War pledges made and the Irish Republic is recognized. Approval was expressed by President de Valera's response to the British proposals.
Downing pointed out results of the disarmament will have more to do with the Irish question than any other.Teresa Watt Weds which Mr. and Mrs. Brown left to spend their honeymoon in Canada.

They will be at home to their

Of 3015 Cambridge place, selected from hundreds of charming young women as the fairest and most beautiful. OF PLANE KILL 3PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—Three persons were killed today when a passenger airplane of the Curtiss type crashed 125 feet on the flying field at Bustleton. The crash occurred in view of hundreds of flight spectators and motorists. The dead are:Conrad M. Foss, pilot and owner of the plane, Hagerstown, Md.; Mrs. Mary Ruskynka, 39 years old, and John Ruskynka, 7, her son.As the machine circled about 125 feet above the field, near the airdrome, its engine stopped. Spectators say the plane poised itself in the air and then plunged to earth, striking on its nose, with the machine in an almost perpendicular position.The place about 1 o'clock in the morning. An attempt by one of the occupants to escape was frustrated by a pistol shot fired by one of the police, the runner halting. The police seized several quarts of home brew. Sheriff Nicholson said last night that the witnesses will probably be released this morning.ARTS CLUB OF WASHINGTON

Washington" competition awarding the decision to Miss Margaret Gorman.PATH OF RED GOLD TO AMERICA FOUNDBelieve Heavy Shipments From France Were Exported by Soviets.NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Despite the fact that the United States set its face sternly and uncompromisingly against accepting blood-stained Soviet gold from Russia, there is reason to believe that many millions have filtered into this country, via France.Figures have just been published showing that upwards of $120,000-000 gold from France has come to the United States since the first of the year, the larger part of it within the last two months. Meanwhile French bank reserves have been practically unaffected, despite these heavy shipments.Government authorities had information in April that the Soviet government at that time had about $175,000,000. This has now dwindled to $124,311, so it is apparent that nearly all the gold has been shipped out of Russia within the last four or five months. It is understood that the gold found its way first to Sweden. Heavy shipments of gold came to the United States from Sweden in April, May and June and then fell off appreciably. At about the time these began to diminish, the heavy export of gold from France set in. In connection with these facts is the additional one that big shipments of gold have been made from Sweden to France in very recent months.It is regarded as highly significant that the amount of gold from France, $17,065,201, arriving in the United States the first ten days in August, bears close resemblance to the $17,775,839, which was exported by the Soviet government between August 2 and August 10. Bankers believe that much of the gold brought into this country since April, is from Soviet sources, although the Federal Reserve Board has made it very clear that gold seized by the Lenin regime is not wanted in this country and the Treasury Department has taken every precaution against accepting the stuff.Silver Spring, Bethesda discreet, close confinement which marked the first days of her return to Paris, Peggy Hopkins Joyce is once more seen nightly in the cafes, restaurants and dancing places where she was an habitue last winter with her husband.A frail, pale, stoop shouldered young man, reported to be a Cuban or a South American, wearing a mourning band, is Peggy's inseparable companion and his big limousine can be seen standing outside the night restaurant of Montmartre until the early morning hours.Peggy quietly slipped out of the Majestic Hotel, not leaving her new address, but sending her companion for her letters and is now living at the Hotel Durkin, where the mysterious young man also has rooms. The magnificent jewelry her husband gave her once more adorns Peggy's throat, arms, and fingers, having been withdrawn from safety deposit boxes at the Morgan-Harjes Bank.

TO TEST LEGALITY
OF MOVE-ON LAWOrganize at Protest Meeting to Fight Police Crusade.District fruit vendors organized yesterday to perfect plans for a campaign against the "move-on" law in effect here, which forbids vendors remaining in one place longer than to make a sale.Harassed by repeated arrests in the last few weeks by police who are enforcing the law, the vendors yesterday decided to carry their fight to the United States Supreme Court. Attorney Harry T. Whelan was directed by the fruit vendors to commence action today. He declared a law which discriminates against one portion of the citizens is in violation of the Constitution.
Salvatore Scalco, prominent fruit merchant, was unanimously elected president of the organization, to be named the United Fruit Vendors
